Winter 2016

Dear Folk Fest Fans,

Now that the days are getting longer, it's easy to picture yourself in the summer sunshine at Riverside Park in La Crosse, enjoying the sights and sounds of one of the Midwest's longest running folk festivals. With renewed energy, new faces and fresh ideas, we're busy planning the 41st annual Great River Folk Fest, coming up August 26 – 28, 2016.

As always you'll find top-notch musicians, great crafts, and tempting, wholesome foods. We plan to turn up the energy level a bit, with a schedule that provides a virtually constant supply of great music choices. If you've skipped a Fest or two lately from "been there, done that" syndrome, come on back! Loyal fans, you'll love it, we promise.

Recruiting outstanding performers and covering all the other event costs while keeping tickets affordable is a huge challenge. Please help if you can, with a tax deductible contribution, or by preordering your 2016 ticket package at the "Friend of the Fest" level (available soon).

Thanks in advance for your support. See you this summer, if not sooner!
